

I think we, as consumers, who have already put ourselves on the No Call List, should be respected for just that, and not have to deal with ANY additional calls. I DO NOT approve of this extended NO Call list. Haven't they got the message? If we want to get put back on their list, we'll ask to be put back on. Please stop this from happening.